Anarchy in the Organism, Cancer as a Complex System Symposium

Friday 15th June 2012, 2pm – 5.30pm

At Franks / Steel Room, Wellcome Collection Conference Centre, 183 Euston Road, London, NW1

This free event will be a series of talks on cancer as a scientific, cultural, social and personal phenomenon followed by open discussion with patients, carers, researchers, and clinicians who contributed to Simeon Nelson's new installation Anarchy in the Organism in the UCH Macmillan Cancer Centre.

Speakers include:

Simeon Nelson, the artist

Monia Brizzi, a chartered counselling psychologist

Gilly Angell, patient

Simon Walker-Samuel, Senior Research Associate, UCL Centre for Advanced Biomedical Imaging

Jorge Castillo Sepúlveda, Group of Social Studies of Science and Technology, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

The event is free and open to everyone but booking is essential as spaces are limited
